20 Years of Fringe

Welcome to the 20th anniversary of KC Fringe. I'm inspired to look at the incredible community that has built this festival, a collaborative effort where artists, volunteers, staff, and audiences unite to create something extraordinary. If you are reading this program, you are part of that community. Thank you!

Over the past two decades many artistic careers and multiple theater and production companies were launched in KC Fringe. And you were there. You witnessed world premieres of countless plays and films as well as works by established creators pushing their artistic visions to new limits. You also attended the first showing of a visual artist who has gone on to have a vibrant, sustainable career.

It's safe to say that the Kansas City arts scene has been forever changed by the Fringe community you helped create.

All this would not be possible without the dedicated hard work of the KC Fringe staff and volunteers. They are the heart of our festival. Truly, without their efforts, there would be no festival.

You are part of an adventurous and supportive audience. Your appetite for daring, uncurated work ignites and sustains our festival, making our city vibrant and unique.

For those of you who have been with us before, whether last year was your first or your 19th, thank you. For those of you joining us for the first time, welcome to KC Fringe, where creativity knows no bounds and every voice has a place.

With heartfelt appreciation,

How to Fringe

1 Buy a Button

A $5 Fringe Button is required to enter all Fringe events. Buy one and bring it with you to all performances and events, like the Fringe After Parties. Button purchases fund the festival! Children 12 and under get a free Fringe Button. Buttons are available at every Fringe venue during the festival, Previews, at the Opening Night Party, and at Fringe 411 office.

2 Buy a Ticket

Tickets are $15 for each event unless otherwise noted. Tickets for children ages 3-12 are $8. Tickets can be purchased in advance at kcfringe.org, at the venue box office 30 minutes prior to showtime, at Fringe 411, or at the Union Station Visual Arts Gallery. Fringe 411 also sells a $65 Five Show Pass and a $120 Ten Show Pass if you want to binge and save. We accept cash and all major credit cards. No personal checks.

3 Go Fringe

You can find all the show information at kcfringe.org. You can also pick up a printed program at Fringe 411, Union Station Visual Arts Gallery or at any Fringe venue during the festival.

Closed Sunday and Monday.

Run Times and Ratings

All Fringe shows are sixty minutes long, and there is a half-hour between shows. Doors open ten minutes before show time. No refunds after the show begins, and no late seating. Shows are rated AA (All Ages), PG (Parental Guidance), or MA (Mature Audiences).

Volunteer for Fringe Bucks

Volunteers are the heart of KC Fringe! Volunteering earns you Fringe Bucks which you can use to buy tickets to shows. Volunteer positions include ushers, house managers, photographers/videographers, office volunteers and so much more. Find out how to volunteer at kcfringe.org/volunteer.

Venue Menus

All Fringe venues offer beverages and snacks. Adult beverages are also available at The Arts Asylum, The Bird Comedy Theater, The Black Box, Independence Blvd. Christian Church, Oasis, and Whim Space.

Reviews

Can't decide which shows to see? Check out reviews online at kcfringe.org/2024-reviews, and feel free to leave your own ratings and comments on each show's page.

Accessibility

All KC Fringe Festival Venues are wheelchair accessible. If you need further accessibility or have questions please contact access@kcfringe.org.

Inclusivity Statement

KC Fringe is committed to provide a respectful, safe environment free from harassment, violence, discrimination, bullying, and abuse. We will not tolerate participation in activities or behaviors that discriminate on the grounds of race, gender, age, marital status, religious beliefs, citizenship, mental and physical abilities or sexual orientation. We provide opportunities for everyone to contribute and participate in all events and activities whenever possible and all community members are to be treated with respect and dignity. We seek to expand our reach to fight against injustices and become a more welcoming and equitable place for everyone to enjoy the performing arts.

Best of Fringe Schedule

The show with the best average attendance at each venue will receive a bonus performance Sun Jul 28. The winners will be announced at midnight on Sat Jul 27 at the After Party and on our website at kcfringe.org/best-of Kick off the live Festival as Fringe artists tease you with previews of their shows as each artist is given one minute to peak your curiosity. Hosted by Audrey Crabtree with music by Luke "Skippy" Harbur.

Workshops and Panels

Free Panel: Inclusivity In Artistic Spaces

6:00 Mon 22 The Black Box

This is an informative open discussion to help artists, arts leaders, community and audiences to support, empathize, advocate and active equitable spaces for others. Facilitated by Beth Marshall, a successful bi/pan queer, goth mama, neurodivergent, disabled artist in a variety of artistic fields, who also happens to be a woman with certification in artistic inclusivity work. Additional panelists will be present. Free to the community. Then stay after for The Black Box Karaoke at 8:30.

Workshop: Producing Theatre 101

11:00am Sat Jul 27 The Bird Comedy Theater

Two hours. Workshop fee $20

Beth Marshall's breadth of knowledge in theatre on the stage, back of stage, front of house, in the board/staff rooms across the globe gives her a unique position to understanding all aspects of creating, producing, fundraising and selling your artistic product. She will guide a two-hour workshop with time for questions and brainstorming collaborations.

Workshop: Practical Mime for All Performers

11:00am Sun Jul 28 The Bird Comedy Theater

Two hours. Workshop fee $20

Beth Byrd-Lonski and Dean Hatton, two students of Marcel Marceau among many others, will teach tips and tricks to be confident on the stage. They'll cover how to make entrances and exits count, "making the audience right," deliver your character's intentions and how to stand out like Charlie Chaplin. Participants will be on their feet, working on practical exercises in a fun and supportive environment. Be dressed to move, bring water and your curious mind.

Workshop: Teen Playwriting Workshop

10:00am-3:30pm Sat Jul 13 The Coterie

Crown Center at 2401 Grand Blvd, Suite 250. Workshop fee $20.

To give a voice to emerging young writers, the Coterie offers a teen playwriting seminar during which students will learn to devise dialog and action, script writing format, build characters, write two monologues, create a setting, and begin the creation of a scene with teaching artist R.H. Wilhoit. Following this seminar, participants may be selected to develop their plays through The Coterie's Young Playwrights' Roundtable. Available to students going into 8th-12th grade.

Rated PG for violence, blood.

This is a collection of short films that dab in the psychological, science fiction, and horror. One tells of a poet with a dead lover and a magical quill. One is of an alien head for sale in a shop of weird items. Another tells of a man-spider after an old woman's soul. Each are period pieces presented for the viewer in B&W picture. They are connected and exist together in The Moonlight Mist.

7:30	7:30	7:30	9:00	4:30

From the insanely creative mind of a 7th Grader comes a superhero tale so spectacular, so incredible, so superhero adjective-ly silly, you'll never be able to laugh the same way again! Come see the adventure story some people are calling, "a one act, comedic superhero play written by Joshua Gleeson." Heroes and friendships will be tested! Ceilings and minds will be shattered! It's escapism fun for the whole family! Rated AA.

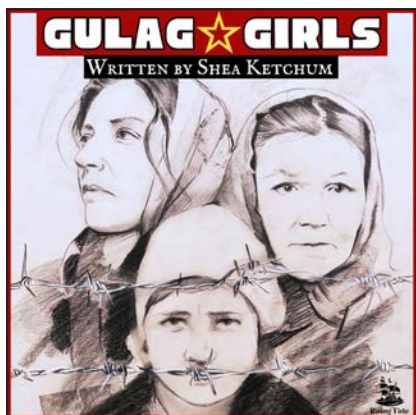

Fella & Dame: An Ode to Mid-Century Comedy & St. Louis' Gaslight Square

Analicia Kocher & Panagiotis Papavasopoulos

St. Louis, MO

FRI 19	SAT 20	SAT 20	Comedy, Improv/sketch
6:00	3:00	9:00

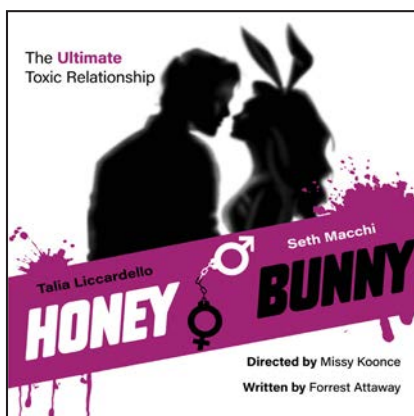

This nostalgic play transports audiences to the vibrant entertainment scene of 1950s-60s St. Louis. Comedy duo Stella Fella and Danny Dame are faced with a choice: pursue Hollywood fame or remain loyal to their roots in Gaslight Square. Their journey explores themes of friendship, ambition, and the true meaning of success. Will they chase the spotlight of Tinseltown, or find fulfillment closer to home? Rated AA. HeyAnalicia.com

West Kester

SAT 20	SUN 21	WED 24	FRI 26	SAT 27	Comedy, Storytelling, Theatre
7:30	9:00	9:00	6:00	4:30

As a penance for two decades of nosiness, Kansas City comedian West Kester shares the real, unedited entries of their diaries and journals. From years of awkward adolescence to their current entries, as recent as yesterday, West invites audiences to revel in their own mortification, and maybe find familiarity in the open and honest (and melodramatic) thoughts and feelings of a total stranger. Rated MA for adult language, sexual content, mentions of drugs/alcohol/suicide.

The mind, the most powerful thing in creation, is what drives our evolution and thirst for the unknown. But what happens in the depths of the mind when you face terrible things that are out of your control? We explore the expanse of consciousness and the limitations of humans, showcasing philosophical thought by experience and emotion. Be enthralled by a night of wonder and discussion into what the mind can be and how it overcomes failure and devastation. Rated MA for adult language, mentions of suicide ideation and mental illness, abuse, trauma, and murder.

Tim Mooney plays all of the characters of Shakespeare's only Christmas play (that has nothing to do with Christmas)! Twelfth Night was the Elizabethan "Mardi Gras", with men playing women, servants playing masters and a good many more dirty jokes than were traditionally allowed. This is also the closest Shakespeare ever came to cranking out a musical, and Tim has given brand new tunes to Shakespeare's old words! Rated PG for adult language, sexual content. timmooneyrep.com

You know those nights that turn magical when you start sharing stories with your friends? That's exactly what happens in Playback Theatre! Improv SpringBoard and drama therapist Emily Bartlett (b. Hive theatre) will be performing this innovative format, where improvisors recreate audience members' stories. Twist: The audience members will tell them how well they did, then the improvisers will try again. Unlike traditional improv, Playback tries for authenticity, leading to sets that are as powerful and poignant as they are funny! " Rated PG.

Syllabus: Dr. Winkworth, the foremost expert on sexual clowning, has preserved a highly specialized art form. This semester, he presents regional styles of pantomimed masturbation dating back to ancient Greece, with special focus on the 1920s silver screen genius: the Spankin' Shyster. This off-Broadway multimedia "lecture" stars a deadpan professor who takes "jackin' around" very seriously. Intellectual satire meets Monty Python. Welcome to The School of Magically Meta Studies! Learn first-hand from our founder, Rachel, how the word "meta" is the most powerful tool in our life kit for understanding ourselves, our stories, and the world in which both are realistically grounded. With a dash of sparkle, a glitchy shadow, and a banker's box full of legos, the classroom becomes a metascapes to explore identity, trauma, and cycles. Hardships, meet hilarity. "TragiComick transgender-identifying true confessional" and "obscene, maniacal burlesque star" may sound incompatible... but this gritty song-and-dance nightclub headliner has combined stranger, stickier things onstage. Who gets to define whether someone is a drag queen, king, or an in-between? What happens when "dark humor as a non-stop coping mechanism" falls short? Rated MA for adult language, sexual content. THE SON OF A

PLAYWRIGHT COOPER BATES

SECOND CHANCES STRIKE HARDER THAN YOU THINK

The poster features three main images: a close-up of a young man's face on the left, a baseball player in a white uniform with his arm raised in the center, and a close-up of a young boy's face on the right. The text is arranged around these images, with the title "THE SON OF A" in large, bold, black letters. The author's name "PLAYWRIGHT COOPER BATES" is written vertically on the right side. At the bottom right, the "KCFRINGE 20Years" logo is visible.

FOOLS

Written in the comical stylings of "Friends" and "How I Met Your Mother", this is one side-splitting show that brings to light the often hilarious situations faced by men and women in love in a world where no blind date can be too horrific and no relationship too weird. Think Monty Python meets Saturday Night Live! Directed by Eric Yazell.

"A side-splitting comedy. You'll ache from non-stop laughing."
